I have unfortunately omitted to mention in my last letter to you the request that all the papers relative to entrance at the custom House of the goods, tiques or might be sent to me under cover to Mr. Cla. at Washington. One trial more will be made to get the duties on them all remitted.

I am now in the House of Bishops & hope that the business of the Convention will be closed this evening, but fear that I may be disappointed. The truth is I have become quite tired of the confinement, which I perceive is attended with so little good.

Bishop Griswold will take leave of us he says tomorrow morning. Bp. Brower went away a few days ago, under deep affliction by reason of the sudden death of his daughter. Bishop Brower also left us to attend on his Wife whose health is in a critical state; she having become lately the mother of two children at a birth.

16. - (at my lodgings) The Convention closed last last evening and I have risen this morning to thank God and write a few lines to you the best of wives.

How to get the things for Fanny to this in time I know not. Mr. Morse will & must get it off immediately so that if they come from New York hither I know not how to send them except by the carrying crassons.
In that case she will not expect them till they can have been carried on by the boys from the vessel. -

I shall stay here a few days return to N.Y. -

My New Orleans tour is not yet determined on. but you must not be grieved if you do not see me till Spring.

I submit to God: will - I hope you will not murmur at it Ever your faithful & affectionate Husband

Mrs S. M. Chase P. Chase
